

St. Ignatius School Golf Tournament

About St. Ignatius School

For over 100 years, St. Ignatius School has provided quality educational in a Christ-centered environment. Our students learn and grow spiritually, intellectually and physically. We are an independent Catholic school serving children in junior kindergarten to grade 8

Southwood Golf & Country Club

Adjacent to the Trappist Monastery Ruins in St. Norbert, the 18-hole course was designed by renowned Canadian architect Thomas McBroom to the highest standards. The spectacular natural and historic surroundings provide a perfect setting over almost 300 acres.

Just outside the Perimeter, Southwood is a short drive from anywhere within the city – but far enough away to give you the tranquility of a true country club setting.

Arrive early & hone your skills on one of the best practice facilities in Canada.
